

Environmental policy – Loipart AB

Loipart is the provider of complete marine catering areas, laundry and waste management solutions that helps our customers assure that the consumer gets the right experience.

Our way of acting, both internally and externally, through the whole business process, shall contribute to create a more environmental friendly society by:

- Comply with laws, regulations and other requirements
- Work towards continuous improvement of our environmental performance
- Make every effort to get our customers choose environmentally friendly packaging and transportation options
- Strive to use environmentally friendly and recyclable packaging as well as environmentally friendly modes of transport from our suppliers
- Educate our customers in safe and environmentally friendly product use
- Influence our staff to travel green
- Work structured with our waste management and recycling
- Reduce use of electricity, paper and other material
- Educate and train staff in environmental knowledge
- Select office supplies and furniture for long-term consumption

Alingsås 2018-03-19

Teea Flygare – CEO & Owner

